

REMARKS

In the official action the Examiner sets forth a three way restriction requirement with claims 1-36 and 53-59 falling into group I, claims 37-43 and 60 falling into group II and claim 44-53 falling into group III.

The Examiner asserts that these three groups are related as sub-combination claims.

The restriction requirement implies that the Examiner finds these claims to be not to be "obvious variants" of one another. If that were not the case, then the restriction requirement would be improper.

The applicant hereby elects the claims of group I (Claims 1-36 & 53-59) for initial examination on their merits.

An action of the merits of this application is awaited.
